Clear Coat/Protective Finish to protect the colors: Glossy or Satin...$35.00

Craftsmanship/Restoration Letter: $35.00

This is a keepsake letter that you would want to pass down to the next generation. It is written on acid free, antique fine parchment paper explaining what I did to your firearm. Everything from color case hardening a receiver or frame to slow rust or hot bluing the barrel and metal, to refinishing a stock. It is included in the price for Complete Restorations.

I use Mr. Jack Jones, Master Engraver.

There is a $100.00 minimum charge for CCH of small parts such as triggers, hammers or screws.

To dis-assemble & re-assemble the parts from your frame/receiver only: $100.00

To dis-assemble & re-assemble the whole firearm is: $200.00

There is also a $55.00 per hour charge for hand polishing. Once I receive the firearm I will make the determination & quote you as such.

S&H & Insurance charges apply for any returned firearms.
